5.1 "I am unable to attend tonight as I have to attend a charity fundraising event tonight. Tony Vass (WBA) has kindly agreed to chair the meeting. I can report as follows:

i) As promised at the October meeting I have been chasing in the remaining 2011/12 subscriptions. Can I thank all the Sports Secretaries for helping me with this task. At the time of writing these notes the only ones still to submit their applications and payments are:

Barrow. They were to decide whether to rejoin at their AGM, which was held after our October meeting. Update – Barrow have rejoined and paid.

Bolton Wanderers. They had advised me that their application and cheque are in the post but it now seems their cheque has gone astray in the post. If that is still the case, come the meeting, they will give a fresh cheque to Nick Head on the night. Update – this has been done.

Hartlepool United. I suspect that this branch is now defunct. Update – Neil McAndrew has moved. Update - Ian Todd (Sunderland) may have up to date contact details.

Hearts. They have had problems getting a cheque countersigned. They are checking with Nick Head to see if they can send the subscriptions direct to the APFSCIL bank account. Update – one of their representatives was at the meeting and the matter should be sorted out soon.

Mansfield Town. They should be attending tonight and will settle up then. Update – they have rejoined as Associate Members.

Yeovil. Due to various reasons they are considering Associate Membership. Update – we have yet to hear their decision.

ii) I did mention the possibility of a guest speaker at the December meeting. It now looks likely that he will have another engagement. Update – Mick Rathbone will be at the Exmouth Arms on the 24th November as a guest of London Everton. All APFSCIL members are welcome to attend.

iii) The Committee can confirm that there will be a buffet after the December meeting, which we be held as usual at the Exmouth Arms."

9.3 Ian Todd, Sunderland, reports a possible end to Sunderland's marvellous arrangement, with Grand Central.

"Arriva in Grand Central Railway takeover Grand Central will continue to be based in York

Transport group Arriva has announced a takeover of North East-based Grand Central Railway.

The company, which runs services to London from Sunderland, Hartlepool and Bradford, has been acquired for an undisclosed sum.

As an open access operator, Grand Central does not receive subsidy from, or pay any premium to, the Department for Transport.

It provides about 700,000 passenger journeys a year.

Tom Clift, Managing Director of Grand Central Railway said the company would remain a self-contained business with its own brand and identity, and would continue to be based in York.

He added: "The decision by Arriva, one of Europe's largest transport undertakings, to acquire Grand Central is a huge vote of confidence in all our staff who have worked so hard over the last four years to deliver the very highest standards of customer service to the growing numbers of passengers using our routes.

"I will continue to lead Grand Central and will report directly into Bob Holland, MD of Arriva's UK Trains division."

Mr Holland said: "Bringing Grand Central on board means we have a live open access operation up and running, one which is popular with customers and which we believe we can develop to become a key commercial part of our UK rail operations."

Ian Todd (Sunderland) advised that Arriva were forming " Arriva Alliance Rail " to be based in Sunderland.

9.4 Matthew Gabb (Cardiff) asks "Was there any conclusion to who to contact for group deals on the east coast mainline? I have not had to try yet, but have Doncaster in January". Ian Todd (Sunderland) advised that East Coast were now based in London.
